- A online shopping system user can either be a customer or an admin. So user is generalized into customer and admin.
- Admin manages the category of different products. He is responsible for adding products
- The user places order. A order is a composition of Order detail, shipping detail and payement detail.
- Customer can also add 0 or more product to the shopping cart.